

STORKFORT HEALTH SIGNS A PARTNERSHIP AGREEMENT WITH PECB

Storkfort Health is pleased to announce a collaborative partnership with PECB to bring training courses to Botswana. This partnership will enable both companies to strengthen their presence in the marketplace by providing better access to their services, recognizing that both companies work to achieve the same goal.

“Our partnership with PECB has enabled us to offer our clients the relevant and value adding training material that will equip their teams with the essential skills and knowledge vital for sustainable business growth and success. We are excited about the opportunities that the local market has to offer and look forward to all round reciprocal growth for our clients, our business partners and Storkfort Health.” Mogwera Mogalakwe – CEO, Storkfort Health

“Our success with Storkfort Health has allowed us to connect with our customers and deliver the services that they really want and need. PECB has built a strong reputation in the international market for its expertise and ability to develop and deliver training courses on many ISO standards. We are excited to partner with Storkfort Health and lend our expertise to help create better services for the Botswana market. We look forward on growing this partnership as market demand for ISO Standard Trainings continues to grow.” Eric Lachapelle – CEO, PECB

ABOUT US

STORKFORT HEALTH

Storkfort Holdings (Pty) Ltd, trading as Storkfort Health (SH) is a fully Botswana Citizen Owned company licenced as a training and health services provider. Over the years the company has amassed great experience in providing health services in different packages and models to different economic sectors in Botswana and the Southern African Development Community (SADC) region.

Through the lifetime of our service to our clients we have realised the need for training and information sharing on various elements that affect occupational health and public health particularly Health and Safety, Sustainability and ISO certification. In line with this realization SH has developed, equipped and accredited a training unit to support enterprises in their pursuit for sustainable business growth.

In pursuit of our mission to inspire the world through dignified, compassionate and sustainable health services, we aim to equip clients with the necessary skills, competencies and certification to enable them to operate as a sustainable and competitive global corporate citizen.
